Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in your open position for Software Engineering Internship, which I came across through the company's website.

I would describe myself as an enthusiastic, highly motivated, result driven individual with a collaborative nature. I'm confident that I'm going to exceed your expectations in this role. Being passionate about Software Engineering skills has always been my drive to always look for a new opportunity to improve my knowledge of it. I'm humbly confident to give my best energy to have a great result at this role.

Based on the job description, it appears I'm a great fit for this position because I excel at being a student. I would get the opportunity to learn and work with the latest and greatest technologies, to be able to boost my productivity and that of the company.

I would be delighted to speak with you at your convenience and share more about my particular enthusiasm for this role and how my knowledge from different boot camps have equipped me to hit the ground running.

Sincerely,
Ogunsola Paul
